"It became apparent early in our business relationship that Obasa handles affairs with the utmost integrity and responsiveness. I would enthusiastically recommend anyone to deal with Obasa without hesitation..... Obasa is an organization that has as its principle objective the financial well being of its investors. The enthusiasm of management and investors is contagious. Obasa represents an exceptional opportunity for any real estate investor to be involved with an organization whose decisions are based on sound business principles and good old common sense."

"During my time on the Broadway Condominium Board from 2003 to 2008, of which 4 years were as President, I would summarize the dealings with Obasa as a favorable and positive working situation..... The Obasa Group was responsive and professional. I found they were accommodating in relationship to our building needs such as security, safety, ownership matters and tenancy."
